

ClfA Finds Group Day Conference and AGM
 Birmingham and Midland Institute, Margaret Street, Birmingham
 17th May 2017

Interpreting Finds: innovative and multi-disciplinary approaches in post-excavation

- 10.00 Registration (Tea/Coffee available from 9.30am)
- 10.15 Lost in Space; Duncan Brown, Historic England
- 10.35 Shining new light on Roman London? Combining artefact research and public archaeology at the London Archaeological Archive
Michael Marshall, MOLA
- 10.55 "On time, On Budget" and Beyond: Challenging the Modus Operandi of Commercial Fieldwork.
Guy Hunt, LP Archaeology
- 11.15 Identity and Change in South-West England: the role of specialist reports in creating a new approach to the reading of material culture and identity
Sian Thomas, Archaeology Wales Ltd
- 11.35 Illustration of pottery – uses of colour in digital illustration
Laura Templeton, Worcestershire Archive and Archaeology Service
- 11.40 Discussion
- 12.00 ClfA Finds Group AGM (all invited, only FG members can vote)
- 12.30 Lunch (Provided)
- 1.30 Bone Scoops (with handling collection); Paul Stokes, University of Durham
- 1.50 "Die Schüssel ist von Ert gemacht wann sie verbricht der Haefner lacht darum nempt sie in acht": Considering the life of pots through clearance assemblages (the text is an inscription from an 18th century Pennsylvania Dutch dish: "This dish is made of earth, when she breaks the potter laughs, so take care of her").
Philip Carstairs, University of Leicester
- 2.10 Archaeometallurgical residues; before, during and after excavation
Tim Young, GeoArch
- 2.30 Discussion
- 2.40 Tea
- 3.00 An Introduction to the Review of Standards of Reporting on Archaeological Artefacts;
Duncan Brown, Historic England
- 3.30 Discussion of the Review Results; Louise Rayner, Archaeology South-East
- 4.00 Discussion/Feedback
- 4.30 Close