

SETTING STANDARDS IN ARCHAEOLOGY

The Institute of Field Archaeologists is a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital, registered in England number 1918782. Its Registered Office is situated in Reading. The directors of the company are the members of the Council of the Institute.

All correspondence and enquiries should be directed in the first instance to the central office address:

SHES, The University of Reading, Whiteknights, PO Box 227, Reading RG6 6AB, United Kingdom Tel 0118 378 6446 Fax 0118 378 6448 e-mail admin@archaeologists.net Website www.archaeologists.net

The Institute cannot accept responsibility for the acts or omissions of any Honorary Member, Member, Associate, Practitioner, Student, Affiliate or Registered Archaeological Organisation, and accordingly the Institute shall not be liable for any loss or damage or other matter arising from the employment or engagement of any such member.

In the event of a complaint against a member of IFA or an IFA-registered organisation, it is the policy of the Institute to resolve the matter by negotiating with those concerned. However, provisions do exist for the initiation of disciplinary proceedings against members of IFA in appropriate circumstances relating to professional misconduct.

The Institute is unable to express opinions about the reputation, competence or quality of work carried out by any professional body which is not IFA-registered.

We gratefully acknowledge the support of firms whose advertisements appear throughout this publication. As a reciprocal gesture we have pleasure in drawing the attention of our readers to their announcements.

Whilst every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained in this Yearbook and directory is current and correct, neither the IFA nor the publishers can be held responsible for any errors or omissions which may occur.
