

Area and Special Interest Groups' aims

As shown in Annex section 4 of the Regulations governing Area and Special Interest Groups

Advisory Council

Elect an accredited representative from the committee to attend Advisory Council meetings and provide feedback between the committee and the Advisory Council

Communication

Inform group members about committee activities and promote cooperation between archaeologists through regular updates or newsletters

Meetings

Conduct meetings on topics of professional interest to group members and share relevant content

CifA group committee expected activities

Training and development

Facilitate member training by developing content for training events or workshops

CifA feedback

Gather policy feedback, propose ideas to help promote the Institute, provide area and specialist interest advice, and relay these to the Advisory Council via the Group's representative

