

Rejoiner amnesty

Welcoming you back to ClfA

We are running a rejoiner amnesty to former accredited members whose membership has lapsed since 2020.

Details

The amnesty runs until 1 March. Eligible individuals can easily rejoin by

- completing a short application form to confirm your details
- submitting an up-to-date CV and/or job description

Once accepted, you will pay a reduced subscription fee for the final quarter of the 2025-26 year.

Reasons to rejoin

- be part of a community of professional archaeologists for knowledge sharing, networking and good practice
- demonstrate your skills and knowledge through professional accreditation
- support ClfA advocacy promoting the value of archaeology, ensuring the profession is recognised and appreciated in society

Scan the QR code to find out more or email membership@archaeologists.net

